Other information helpful pre-adventure

To make your child's adventure as enjoyable as possible, please attach a brief note commenting on any of the following: recent changes in your child's life; difficulties in school; past camp experiences; unusual/difficult medical or emotional experiences; your child's ease of making friends; hobbies/activities especially enjoyed; what your child is looking forward to (or not looking forward to) on their adventure, etc.

It is also helpful for campers to provide a brief statement about themselves. This registration form and both parent and camper statements will be used to prepare leaders for their adventure. All comments will be treated confidentially.
